

I am against having HDTV receivers implement copy protection when a "broadcast flag" is detected in a television signal that the HDTV receives. This would greatly interfere with my right to tape programs for my own use on an HDTV -- a right, by the way, that has been backed by the courts.

This is yet another attempt on the part of TV and movie studio owners to limit the "fair use" rights of consumers to copy programs for home use.